

Summary of Results for Evaluation Survey for Andrea Stewart, SPT

Title: Physical therapist perspectives on walking treatments for patients with multiple sclerosis

Date: 4/6/2018

Number of participants: 10

- Physical therapists: 8
- Physical therapy students: 1
- Occupational therapists: 1

	Agree	Somewhat agree	Disagree	Comments (optional)
The speaker made good eye contact and spoke clearly and effectively.	9	1	-	-
The presenter was knowledgeable on the topic and well-prepared.	10	-	-	-
The objectives were clear and appropriate for the audience.	10	-	-	-
The slides were organized and enhanced the presentation.	9	1	-	-
The research questions and findings were clearly conveyed.	8	2	-	-
The presentation was engaging.	10	-	-	-
The presenter responded effectively to the audience's comments and questions.	9	1	-	-
The content of the presentation was useful to my practice/work.	8	2	-	-

What the speaker did well:

- "Good reflection questions, broad questions to include all settings. Great presentation skills!"
- "Clear and enthusiastic; good speaker"

- “Spoke clearly, seems very passionate and well-spoken on topics.”
- “Good research and engaged the audience throughout the session”
- “Facilitated conversation”
- “She was confident and well prepared. She came with thoughtful questions that helped with perspective and engaged the audience to relate.”
- “Well spoken, good to move on quickly when questions addressed”
- “Presented very well. Confident in topic info.”

What the speaker could have done to improve:

- “N/A”
- “I would have liked to have MS be a more central presence or focus in presentation.”
- “Read off slides most of the presentation (put less on the slides)”
- “You did great!”